ERIC COQUEREL & BORIS VALLAUD FORMER LEFT MP UNVEIL THEIR ECONOMIC PLAN

AT MEDEF HEARINGS, 20 JUNE24

Paris, Washington DC, 22.06.2024, 22:10 Time

USPA NEWS - The MEDEF, (Movement of Businesses of France), union of Employers of France, chaired by Patrick Martin organized an audience, today June 20, all morning (8 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.), to the candidates of the main parties of the Express election of the legislative elections of June 30 and July 7. It is a direct consequence and "one man's decision" according to the words of current Minister of Economy and Finance Bruno Lemaire proposed by the President of the Republic Emmanuel Macron, dissolving the National Assembly on June 9. Since then, a political-economic cataclysm has swept through France. The debate was conducted by the iconic business journalist, Hedwige Chevillon, one of the best interviewers specializing in economics and finance topics, airing on the BFM Business TV channel. She led the debates under great intellectual integrity, facing the political party candidates, who are Eric Coquerel former MP, (Far Left, LFI, rebellious France) and Boris Vallaud former MP (Socialist) as they unfolded their economic plan, if they win the legislative elections (Polls place New Popular Front at 28%)

ERIC COQUEREL & BORIS VALLAUD UNVEIL THEIR ECONOMIC PROGRAM

Eric Coquerel, former MP, from LFI (Rebellious France) and now running to and his seat back, under the banner of New Popular Front, also Boris Vallaud presents their economic plan for the elections of June 30/July 7. any interest in wages increasing," judge Eric Coquerel "I believe that the vast majority of business leaders in this country have every interest in wages increasing," said Eric Coquerel before MEDEF, recalling that average real wages have fallen by 2.5% since 2017.

"It's a policy that boosts demand, allowing the company to have a larger order book," he explains, concluding that "the vast majority of companies want to increase salaries" while admitting that "for many companies it will be a shock".

"According to France Strategie in 2019, (there was) 223 billion euros in aid or exemption to companies almost without conditions", he adds, proposing to "redirect them differently". And to detail: "We will prioritize; in state aid, companies which create jobs, which increase wages, in the form of a fund, a zero-rate credit" .../
