MARC MARQUEZ WINS 13TH RACE OF SEASON IN VALENCIA

MOTOGP FINAL ROUND RECORD BREAKING

Valencia, 10.11.2014, 10:00 Time

USPA NEWS - Marquez (Honda) is the only rider to win 13 races in the same season. The italian, Valentino Rossi (#46 Yamaha) comes in at second place for a great come back. Infact, Rossi confirms his second place in Final World Standings.

The race begins with a spectacular start by lannone that takes the lead in front of pole-sitter Valentino Rossi. It seemed he could keep the lead on the rest of the field but unfortunately the rider from Vasto (Abbruzzo), was slowed down due to tire problems after only 11 laps.

There were other "twists" during the race: rain and uncertain weather conditions kept riders and teams on edge, especially Jorge Lorenzo (Yamaha) who thought it would be safer and strategically correct to switch to the motorcycle with rain set-up. This turned out to be a poor decision on behalf of the team and forced Lorenzo to retire after loosing 10 seconds per lap due to tire consumption on what turned out to be a dry track.

With Lorenzo out of the race Rossi takes checkerd flag in 2nd place followed by Dani Pedrosa (Honda) in 3rd.

As the curtain closes on the 2014 Championship, next years' MotoGp promises to be more competitive than ever with Valentino Rossi pursueing his 10th World Championship victory, Jorge Lorenzo (Rossi's team mate) furious for loosing 2nd place in Campionship this year to his team mate and rival, Rossi and Marc Marquez, reigning Champion attempting to confirm his supremacy.
