

Beat: Politics

Catalonia has once again displayed its political plurality

According Mariano Rajoy

Madrid, 29.09.2015, 09:57 Time

USPA NEWS - The President of the Spanish Government, Mariano Rajoy, underlined that "those in favour of segregation were never backed by the law and, as of Sunday, we know that they do not have the support of the majority of Catalan society either."

The President of the Spanish Government, Mariano Rajoy, remarked that, although some sought to make the elections held on Sunday in Catalonia direct elections and thus start a process to break away from the rest of Spain, what they did in fact do was elect their representatives in the regional Parliament. However, the results from the ballot box confirm that "not even as many as four out of ten Catalans are committed to a break-away process." Mariano Rajoy congratulated all the people of Catalonia for the high turnout recorded in these elections and for the "democratic maturity and responsibility" shown.

In his speech, Rajoy called on the regional Government that comes out of the new regional Parliament to "govern for all the people of Catalonia, to overcome the divisions, tension and confrontations that have marked recent years, to replace monologue and unilateral imposition with constructive and loyal dialogue, because it was once again shown yesterday that Catalonia is very plural." In this effort, he stated, they will receive "all the collaboration from my government, provided this is within the law and from a standpoint of full institutional respect", because "a strong and supportive country, such as ours, stands up to its challenges from a position of unity and with the cooperation of everyone."

The President of the Spanish Government expressed his willingness to listen and to talk. Dialogue with all the political groups is "very healthy and very democratic", but what we do not seek to do is "to break the law, the expression of the will of the majority or the rules we have enacted to maintain our co-existence," he declared. In this regard, he asserted that the Government of Spain will continue to oversee "respect for the Rule of Law, the equality of all the Spanish people and the rights and liberties of one and all."

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-5547/catalonia-has-once-again-displayed-its-political-plurality.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDSiV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Jose A. Martin

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Jose A. Martin

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

United Press Association, Inc.
3651 Lindell Road, Suite D168
Las Vegas, NV 89103, USA
(702) 943.0321 Local
(702) 943.0233 Facsimile
info@unitedpressassociation.org

info@gna24.com
www.gna24.com